EDUCATION

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent [redacted]

b6
b7C

On February 14, 1969, [redacted] Registrar's Office, University of Nebraska, Lincoln, Nebraska, advised that GERALD LEE WARREN, born August 17, 1920, at Hastings, Nebraska, attended the University of Nebraska from September 16, 1948, until June 2, 1952. He listed his home as St. Edward, Nebraska, and his local address as 526 North 32nd, Lincoln. He attended Papillion and St. Edward High Schools, graduating from St. Edward in 1948. He attended summer sessions at the University of Nebraska in 1949 and 1950. He obtained a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Nebraska on June 2, 1952, from the College of Arts and Sciences, with a major in journalism. [redacted] advised that the University of Nebraska requires a written waiver from the student before information concerning grades, behavior, and conduct will be released.

On the same date, [redacted]

b7C

[redacted] University of Nebraska, Lincoln, advised that no grade average or class standing was computed for GERALD LEE WARREN. From a review of his grades, he would estimate that WARREN was an average "C" student, who finished in the approximate middle of his class. He received high grades in journalism, and these grades compensated for his difficulties in zoology, mathematics, and one literature course. [redacted] advised that the policy of the University of Nebraska requires that he not divulge WARREN's exact grades without a written release. He did indicate, however, that there was no record of attendance or disciplinary problems and that his behavior would be considered adequate. [redacted] concluded that he was not personally acquainted with WARREN and, therefore, the only judgment he could make concerning him was that there is nothing of a derogatory nature in the files of the University of Nebraska which would indicate that he should not be considered for a position of trust and confidence with the government.

Information furnished by FRANK M. HALLGRAN, Director of Placement, University of Nebraska, Lincoln, Nebraska, who was the Dean of Men at the University of Nebraska when WARREN was a student, is set forth under "References".

It is also noted that the address [redacted] [redacted] was the residence of [redacted] a mechanic for the Lincoln Fire Department, from 1951 to 1953.

None of the current residents of the neighborhood near [redacted] [redacted] at this location during the period from 1948 to 1952, and there is no one named [redacted] in current Lincoln directories.

b6

On February 14, 1969, [redacted]

[redacted] University of Nebraska, Lincoln, Nebraska, advised that she was a student at the university from 1948 to 1952. She was acquainted with GERALD LEE WARREN during this period and described him as a fine, intelligent person and an extremely good journalist. She has had no contact with him since that time. She has no reason to doubt his loyalty, honesty, or integrity. She saw in the newspaper that he has accepted a position as a press aide to the President and stated that she believed him to be well qualified for this position and would recommend him for it.

b6
b7C

A review of the 1951 and 1952 "Cornhusker", the annual of the University of Nebraska, indicated that WARREN was an active member of Sigma Nu fraternity, managing editor of the "Daily Nebraskan" during the first semester, 1951, and editor of the "Daily Nebraska" during the second semester.

On February 14, 1969, [redacted]

[redacted] advised that she was [redacted] of the Sigma Nu Fraternity until [redacted]. She knew WARREN only during the period that he was a student but has definite recollections about him because he is well remembered and the type of person who makes a good impression on others. She thought that he lived at the fraternity house during most of his school years but may have lived off campus during part of the time. She recalled that he was a fine, thoughtful, and hard-working young gentleman, and although she did not feel qualified to comment about his ability, she highly recommended him for a position of trust and confidence with the government.

EMPLOYMENT

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent [REDACTED]

b6
b7C

On February 14, 1969, [REDACTED] "Journal-Star", Lincoln, Nebraska, advised that GERALD LEE WARREN, Social Security Number 505-32-5743, was an employee of the "Journal-Star" from June 4, 1951, until July 20, 1952. He was a full-time employee, and his address was shown as 1944 E, Lincoln, Nebraska. The only record of his employment is a time card, and there is no indication of any derogatory information or that WARREN would not be eligible for rehire.

It is noted that the address 1944 E, Lincoln, Nebraska, was the residence of HAROLD COX from 1951 to 1953. None of the current residents in the neighborhood near this address lived there during this period. On February 14, 1969, HAROLD COX, 4030 M, Lincoln, Nebraska, advised that he formerly lived at 944 E Street. Another HAROLD COX lived at 1944 E. Their mail was often confused, and, although he was not related to this person, he was acquainted with him. The HAROLD COX who lived at 1944 E died in an automobile accident several years ago. HAROLD COX, 4030 M, Lincoln, Nebraska, had no personal knowledge of GERALD LEE WARREN.

On February 14, 1969, [REDACTED] Lincoln Star, Lincoln, Nebraska, advised that he knew, but was not well acquainted with, GERALD LEE WARREN when he worked at the Lincoln Star. He has become better acquainted with him since that time and often sees him at national conventions and other similar meetings. Since WARREN was employed at the Lincoln Star, he has followed his career and is aware that he has accepted a position with the new administration. In his opinion, WARREN is an excellent choice for this position. He has no reason to doubt his loyalty, honesty, or integrity, and he knows of nothing about him, his relatives, or his associates that would cause him to have any doubts about his ability to handle his new position. Although he has little first-hand knowledge of WARREN's ability as a journalist, WARREN enjoys an excellent reputation among other journalists. In conclusion, [REDACTED] stated that he would recommend WARREN for a position of trust and confidence with the government.

On the same date, [redacted] [redacted]
[redacted] Lincoln, Nebraska, advised that she worked with WARREN while he was employed at the Lincoln Star. She has had no contact with him since 1952 but recalls him as a friendly, out-going, hard-working, and capable journalist. He was the type of person who made a lasting impression on a person without being pushy about it. He possessed sufficient tact to be able to talk to people about others without revealing personal or confidential information about them just to impress the other that he had this knowledge. [redacted] stated that she had no reason to doubt WARREN's loyalty or integrity and that she could recommend no one better qualified for a position of trust and confidence with the government.

On February 14, 1969, FRANK M. HALLGREN, Director of Placement, Division of Student Affairs, University of Nebraska, Lincoln, Nebraska, advised that he has known GERALD LEE WARREN since he was a student at the University of Nebraska from 1948 to 1952. He was the Dean of Men at the University during this period, and he became well acquainted with WARREN because he was the editor of the University's daily newspaper, the "Daily Nebraskan". He recently wrote a letter to WARREN to congratulate him on being selected as a deputy press aide to the President. As a student, WARREN was mostly concerned and active in journalism. His teachers and fellow students thought highly of him. HALLGREN stated that he has maintained occasional contact with WARREN since his student days and has never heard or seen anything concerning WARREN that would reflect unfavorably upon his loyalty or integrity. He knows of nothing of a derogatory nature concerning WARREN's friends, relatives, or associates. He highly recommends him for a position of trust and confidence with the government.

Nebraska Methodist Headquarters, 49th and St. Paul, Lincoln, Nebraska, advised that he has known GERALD LEE WARREN since his family lived in Greenwood, Nebraska, about thirty years ago. WARREN's father was Superintendent of the Greenwood School District. He related that WARREN's mother died about two months ago, and his father currently resides in Papillion, Nebraska. [REDACTED] said that he has a great deal of respect and admiration for WARREN and his family and believes that he was an excellent choice for his current position as a press aide to the President. When he read in the newspaper that WARREN was chosen for this position, he commented that he approved of the choice. He considers WARREN to be a loyal, honest, and completely moral person. He advised that he knows of nothing of a derogatory nature about WARREN, his family, or his associates. Although he does not know enough about his skill as a journalist to comment about his ability in this field, he does highly recommend him for a position of trust and confidence with the government.

NOTE: Warren, aged 38, employed as Deputy Press Secretary at the White House Office. In November, 1960, Warren was arrested by the San Diego Police Department on a drunk charge. However, records of that department reflect Warren was "released from charge of drunk" same date. Police Department captain who ordered release said it was the policy of his department to handle drunk cases in that manner if the incident was not aggravated by physical assault or damage to public or private property. During investigation all persons contacted were questioned relative to the sobriety of Warren. Warren reportedly is a sober individual who indulges in an occasional social drink, but in moderation, and all were certain alcohol has never been a personal problem with him. During tour of active duty with the United States Navy, Warren was restricted to quarters on six occasions for various periods of time for violation of military regulations. Investigation otherwise favorable. United States Secret Service and NIS outstanding.
